Homes for Good will be accepting Project Based Voucher (PBV) wait-list referrals for one-, two-, and three-bedroom apartments in Eugene, Oregon. The voucher subsidy is set so you will pay 30% of monthly adjusted income for rent.

Applicants must meet very low-income guidelines (50% area median income) to qualify. Income will be assessed at the time the applicant is served. Residents must meet occupancy requirements for the bedroom size selected.

The community consists of two four-story buildings that house residential units, an Early Learning Center, community gathering spaces, an onsite manager, maintenance and resident services, and three playgrounds.
